DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the slot, spring biased mechanism of the hinge, the spring loaded pawl, the release lever, the spring loaded clip must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The description fails to described the swivel mechanism in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor. It is unclear how the annular hub engage the slot receptacle, and the operations of the spring load pawl, the lever See drawing objections above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anderson in view of either Pirhonen et al. (5622296) or Choy et al. (6233788). Anderson teaches a case with a top, and a clip. Either Pirhonen or Choy teaches that it is known in the art provide a rotatable clip and an annular hub. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a rotatable clip with an annular hub in Anderson as taught by either Pirhonen or Choy to provide the desired connector for the clip.

Art Unit: 3727

Regarding claims 2, 3, 9 and 10, Anderson teaches the case can be made from either metal and plastic (col. 3, lines 19). it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to make the container from either aluminum or molded polymer material to provide the desired material for the case.

Regarding claim 5, note the spring-loaded pawl 26 in Pirhonen and portion 18 in Choy.

Regarding claim 6, note the sliding levers 31, 32 in Pirhonen and lever 23 in Choy.

Regarding claim 7, note the clasp 11 in Pirhonen and 11 in Choy.

Either Otrusina or Schaefer teaches that it is known in the art provide a rotatable clip and an annular hub. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a rotatable clip with an annular hub in Anderson as taught by Either Otrusina or Schaefer to provide the desired connector for the clip.
